

Freeze Payments to Junta and Save Myanmar

Myanmar's military began its involvement in business after the socialist coup of the late General Nay Win in 1962. One of their main businesses include Myanmar Oil and Gas Enterprise (MoGE), which under the control of Myanmar military. Myanmar Economic Corporation (MEC) is also one of the biggest shareholders in MoGE. According to 2021-2022 Myanmar budget report, estimated about 2.4 billion of US dollar will be received from 'Oil and Gas Corporations' to Military junta.

Myanmar Military has been profiting from these oil and gas corporations since long before. Its foreign income is also one of the main reasons why military dictatorship sustains in Myanmar according to the '88 uprising'. But this time, we need to raise voice against the oil and gas corporations that keep financing the Myanmar military. Hence, we are calling on foreign governments and oil and gas corporations to freeze payment to Junta and save Myanmar. Let's show our solidarity against Military Junta by joining our twitter campaign on 'Global Call - Oct 25 and 31'.

Pressure Total, Chevron, and all energy corporations to freeze payments to Military Junta.

Hear us out! Solidarity wins!

Blood Money Campaign 'GLOBAL CALL'

TWITTER CAMPAIGN

Tweet to Foreign Government and Oil and Gas Operations

Any payment to Junta is one of the main sources of blood money and legitimacy to the military dictatorship and its atrocities. Revenues from these sectors are one of the biggest income sources and keep the arm force equipped. Myanmar generals have been using this revenues in oppressing its civilians and crimes against humanity.
